

Canadian Investment Review

Pension Leadership Awards

Chief Investment Officer of the Year

This award will be presented to a Chief Investment Officer who has demonstrated leadership when it comes to pension investing and made demonstrable improvements to his or her organization's investment process. This award will take a holistic view of 'success' and consider environmental, social and governance factors when determining which CIO deserves recognition.

ALL FIELDS ARE MANDATORY

1. Are you nominating:

- a) Someone in your own organization
- b) Someone in another organization

If you are nominating someone from another organization, do you have consent from the nominee to submit this? (Please note we require that the nominee has consented to being put forward.)

yes  no

NAME OF NOMINEE (FIRST AND LAST):

NOMINEE TITLE:

NOMINEE ORGANIZATION:

NOMINEE ORGANIZATION AUM:

NOMINEE CONTACT PHONE NUMBER:

NOMINEE CONTACT EMAIL ADDRESS:

2. Please describe why you are nominating this person or organization for the award. Please include the following details: how long has this individual been the CIO, what was his or her role prior to becoming CIO, why is he or she deserving of this award? (1,000 words maximum)

3. Please describe how the CIO incorporates non-financial factors such as environmental, social and governance considerations into his or her organization's investment processes. (500 words maximum)

4. Please outline one to three tangible examples that demonstrate why this CIO deserves to be the CIO of the Year. (1,000 words maximum)

5. Please provide your own contact information:

NAME (FIRST AND LAST):

TITLE:

ORGANIZATION:

CONTACT PHONE NUMBER:

CONTACT EMAIL ADDRESS:

Once complete, please submit to Yaelle Gang, editor of
Canadian Investment Review
by clicking the button below.