

Canadian Investment Review

Pension Leadership Awards

Technology in Investments Award

This award will go to a pension plan that has worked to incorporate technology to improve its investment or back-office processes to create greater efficiency and improve outcomes.

ALL FIELDS ARE MANDATORY

1. Are you nominating:

- a) Your own organization
- b) Another organization

If you are nominating another organization, do you have consent from the nominee to submit this? (Please note we require that the nominee has consented to being put forward.)

yes no

NOMINEE ORGANIZATION:

NOMINEE ORGANIZATION AUM:

NOMINEE CONTACT PHONE NUMBER:

NOMINEE CONTACT EMAIL ADDRESS:

2. Please describe why you are nominating this pension plan for the Technology in Investments Award. Please include the following: When did it start using big data/ artificial intelligence / technology in the investment process? Why did it make these changes? What are the outcomes or advantages that have come from using new technology? Please note that this can relate to using technology in investments or in investment administration. (1,000 words maximum)

3. Please describe how this organization has dedicated time and resources into promoting the use of technology and innovation among its internal employees or worked to partner with industry experts. (500 words maximum)

4. Please outline one to three tangible examples that demonstrate why this organization deserves to win the Technology in Investments Award. (1,000 words maximum)

5. Please provide your own contact information:

NAME (FIRST AND LAST):

TITLE:

ORGANIZATION:

CONTACT PHONE NUMBER:

CONTACT EMAIL ADDRESS:

Once complete, please submit to Yaelle Gang, editor of Canadian Investment Review
by clicking the button below.